Whitney's Filley Flashes Fast Time in Taking $3,710 Purse

Covers 5 1-2 Furlongs in 1:07 3-5 on Dead Track and Beats Suweep by 3 Lengths; Stewards Ban Tribune From Track Following Disgraceful Race

Some good racing, a lot more bad or indifferent, marked the second till the season ends. But, unfortunately, all the races

this sesson than at any similar period

Suweep, the other high weight, handled her impost well and hung on gamely. El Dorado quickly dropped hack in the stretch to finish fifth. Either this one is faint hearted or C. H. Miller made too much early use of her in racing from the extreme outside to a lead of two lengths "up the hill" the first furlong. Creste, which won $3,710, raced the five and a half furlongs over a dead track in the good time of 1:07.3-5.

Whiskaway to Race Grey Lag for Purse

THE Empire City managemen THE Empire City management is attempting to arrange for a week from next Saturday one of the best races of the year. This would bring together Harry Payne Whitney's three-year-old Whiskaway, conqueror of Morvich, and the Rancocas Stable's four-year-old. Grey Lag, admittedly the best horse of the older divisions, with the possible exception of Exterminator. If the pair meet they will come together on a weight for age proposition over a mile and a furlong. Trainer Sam Hildreth, of Rancocas Stable, agreed to James Butler's proposition to add $10,000 for such a test, and Mr. Whitney, who was on hand, agreed tentafively, reserving the right to permit James Rowe the last say on the part of Whiskaway. There is every reason to believe Mr. Rowe will accept Grey Lag's defi.

The Jockey Club does not permit match races. But as on the occasion of the famed duels between such pairs as Hourless and Omar Khayam: Billy Kelly and Eternal and Man o' War and Sir Barton, it is simplicity itself to have the third entry withdraw.

May Be Signed This Afternoon

By Jack Lawrence

Jack Dempsey and Harry Wills may sign an agreement to-day to battle for the heavyweight championship of the world, and then again they may not. At any rate, Paddy Mullins, manager of the negro challenger, and Jack Kearns, manager of Dempsey, will meet in the Fortysecond Street office of Kearns and McKettrick to continue the hot-air convention that was adjourned from Saturday.

Since that time there apparently has &been no change in the situation, although Mullins is said to have consulted a staff of lawyers in the interim, suited a staff of lawyers in the interim, and it is possible that he may be ready to sign for Wills to-day. The fighters might have signed on Saturday, but Mullins apparently is anxious to have the fight held this year and insited that a clause he inserted in the agreement providing that the bout he held within thirty days after the acceptance of the bid of the successful promoter.

The agreement drawn up by Kearns and rejected by Mullins on Saturday fixed sixty days as the time limit.

Another clause demanded by Mullins was one stipulating that in the event of the scrap being held in this state it should be governed by the laws of the New York State Boxing Commission. Inasmuch as it could not be held otherwise, it would seem that this difficulty could be smoothed over very easily, although Kearns appeared to object to adding this proviso.

The managers are expected to get together about 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. 200* Brainstorm ... 100
